

Zero Waste Sonoma County and the Sonoma County Conservation Council present

Turning the Tide on Waste

Landfill Issues and Zero Waste Communities Workshop

Saturday, March 6, 2010

Sebastopol Veterans' Auditorium

1- 4pm, $15 in advance, $20 at the door

282 South High Street, Sebastopol

To register send a note to lite@sonic.net

Followed by the Sonoma County Environmental Awards Dinner
5:30-9pm, Tickets $40, after 2/21: $50 www.envirocentersoco.org/dinner

Decision Makers, Activists and Concerned Citizens:

Are you interested in learning how Sonoma County could divert more and landfill less? Would you like to hear local professionals report on California counties and cities who are moving toward Zero Waste?

Topics & Speakers

Ten minutes each, followed by a Facilitated Group Discussion

Our Nation's Number One Product is Now Waste - Dr. Jane E. Nielson, Geologist

What Is Zero Waste? - Linda Christopher, Grass Roots Recycling Network

Mandatory Recycling & Maximizing Diversion - Kevin Drew, San Francisco Zero Waste Program

Diverting Organics Means More Than Composting- Will Bakx, Sonoma Compost Company

Mandatory Commercial Recycling Coming Soon - Leslie Lukacs, L2 Environmental Resource Recovery Parks - Dan Knapp, Owner, Urban Ore, Inc.

Green Events - Mary Munat, Green Mary.com

Reuse – The Unsung Hero - Portia Sinnott, LITE Initiatives/Zero Waste Sonoma County

Extended Producer Responsibility - Ken Wells, Guiding Sustainability

Getting to Zero Through Aggressive Contract Management

For additional information or to enquire about sponsoring this workshop and related projects, please email lite@sonic.net or call 707 579-5811.

Zero Waste Sonoma County is a program of LITE Initiatives

<http://livinggreen.blogs.pressdemocrat.com/category/zero-waste>